

2022-2023 CLARIFICATION OF LOW INCOME DEPENDENT

Printed Name: _____
(Last) (First) (Initial)

Student ID # _____

The 2020 parent income reported on your 2022-2023 Free Application for Financial Student Aid (FAFSA) appears unusually low. We will need additional information to determine your federal aid eligibility. Parent(s) please answer each section below. If an item does not apply to you, enter "none" or "N/A". Attach additional sheets and/or document(s) (with student name and VVC ID # marked on them) to support your explanations.

2020 Income & Resources: Tell us how much you (Parents) earned or received for the entire year. Please answer all questions

Total Amount Received 2020

Benefit Received*

Indicate Annual Amount

Your Income from Work	$
Your Spouse's Income from Work	$
Business income (not reported above)	$
Unemployment Compensation	$
Pensions/Retirement	$
Interest/Dividend Income	$
Veterans Non-Educational Benefits	$
Child Support Received	$
Housing Allowance (clergy)	$
Other-explain: _____	$
Total Amount	$

Social Security Benefits*	$
Supplemental Security Income*	$
AFDC/TANF*	$
Food Stamps*	$
Military Housing*	$
WIC*	$
Free/Reduced Lunch for Children*	$
Subsidized Housing*	$

*Used for clarification only

<input type="checkbox"/> Attached is a copy of my/our 2017 IRS Tax Return Transcripts, and /or foreign tax return.	<input type="checkbox"/> I/We did not file, and are not required to file a 2016 federal income tax return. Please attach W-2s if income earned.
<input type="checkbox"/> Data Retrieval Tool Used

1. Explain in detail how you (the parent) paid your living expenses for 2020. If you (the parent) had no or few expenses in 2020, tell us why. (Living Expenses are housing, food, clothing, personal care etc.)

Student Signature and Date

Parent Signature and Date