

BP 1100 The Victor Valley Community College District

The District has been named the Victor Valley Community College District.

The name is the property of the District. No person shall, without the permission of the Board, use this name or the name(s) of any college(s) or other facilities of the District, or any abbreviation of them, to imply, indicate or otherwise suggest that an organization, product or service is connected or affiliated with, or is endorsed, favored, supported, or opposed by, the District.

This Board Policy also applies to the following off-site locations:

- The Regional Public Safety Training Center
- The High Desert Training Center

References:

Education Code Section 72000(b);