

Student Representation Fee

Term

Year

A Student Representation Fee (SRF) of $2 per semester is assigned at the time of registration, beginning January 1, 2020. The SRF helps ensure that the student voice is represented to governmental representatives at the local and state level. Students may opt out of this fee by completing and submitting this form, with their signature, to the Bursars Office in building 23.

Yes, I want to opt out of the Student Representation Fee

I have previously opted out, and now want to opt back in to the Student Representation fee.
